

What can I be?

IF I learn to drive a car (I get control over it), does it become a part of me?

In a way it does, because I can Feel the car, when I park it.

*When I damage my leg, then I can Feel the pain in my leg.
When I damage my car, then I Feel the pain in my wallet.*

Would I prefer to lose my left arm or my car?

Would I still answer the same, if I could buy a new arm and it was cheaper than a new car?
